

Parish By-Laws

Part I (Name and Aims)

1. The parish shall bear the name St. Innocent of Moscow Russian Orthodox Church, and shall be organized under the laws of the State of Illinois as an ecclesiastical, non-profit corporation with all attendant powers related to same including, but not limited to, the ability for self-governance, to hold, transfer, and otherwise dispose of property, and to run its affairs in the normal course.
2. It shall be the aim of the parish to unite the believers around the parish church on the basis of the teachings, the canons, the traditions and the rules of the Russian Orthodox Church for the satisfaction of the religious needs and moral benefit of its members.
3. It is the primary mission of St. Innocent of Moscow Russian Orthodox Church to bring the Gospel and services of the Russian Orthodox Church to the people of America in the English language. In furtherance of these Aims, St. Innocent of Moscow Russian Orthodox Church commemorates itself and its individual existence to the observance of the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia.

Part II (General Provisions)

4. It will be the object of the parish to assist the believers, forming part thereof and united in the Faith of Christ our Savior, by means of prayers, sacraments, Christian teaching and Church discipline, in attaining salvation through the participation in sacraments and Christian enlightenment, worthy life and Christian charity. Accordingly, the immediate aims of the parish shall embrace: (a) the care of the church and its adornment; (b) the maintenance of the clergy; (c) the economic prosperity of the parish and the care and needs of its church building, the clergy and all parish institutions, the diocesan and social needs; (d) charitable work, and (e) educational work in the spirit of the Orthodox Church.
5. In conjunction with the parish church there shall be a clergy of not less than one member, viz. the pastor. The clergy shall be appointed by the diocesan authorities. The number of the members of the clergy may be increased or reduced by the Ruling Bishop according to the capacity and needs of the parish after review by and in agreement with the Church Parish Council.

Part III (Parishioners and Parish Members)

6. All Orthodox Christians of both sexes, regardless of their nationality, who have reached the age of 21 years, who pay the established membership dues, who make their confession and take Holy Communion not less than once a year, and who take care of the moral and economic welfare of the parish may become parish members.

Annotation 1. By decision of the Church Parish Council for persons of Orthodox faith who have not reached the age of 21, there may be organized in conjunction with the parish, youth societies for their religious and moral upbringing.

Annotation 2. Persons who live in concubinage without Church marriage, or who are engaged in ignoble business, or who are convicted of criminal offenses shall have no right to participate in the parish meetings or be elected to parish offices. Those convicted of criminal offenses may be restored in their rights three years after they have served their term and after absolution by their father-confessor.

Annotation 3. Those who make confession to a priest outside of this parish must present to the Rector of St. Innocent a certificate from that priest.

7. All parish members shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Church Parish Council in a special register.

8. All parish members, except those mentioned in Annotation 2 under paragraph 5, who regularly pay the membership dues shall have the right to participate with a decisive vote in all Parish Meetings, to elect parish officials and to be elected to parish offices.

Annotation 1. The newly admitted members of the parish shall acquire the right to vote and to be elected to parish offices upon the expiration of six months after their admission to parish membership.

Annotation 2. Parish members who shall have failed to pay their annual civil calendar membership dues one month prior to the Annual Parish Meeting shall be deprived of their rights to vote and to be elected to parish offices. Parish members who shall have failed to pay their membership dues during the immediately preceding twelve months shall be excluded from parish membership. However, should a parish member fail to pay dues because of some valid reason (illness, unemployment, etc.) the question of his right to vote shall be solely determined by the Church Parish Council.

9. Parish members who shall be found disloyal to the parish, who engage in unethical or unacceptable behavior, or who neglect rules and obstruct lawfully adopted resolutions of the Parish Meetings and the instructions of the Church Parish Council, as well as those who shall have violated the good order and decorum in the church or shall be found engaged in some ignoble occupation may be excluded from parish membership by decision of the Church Parish Council, submitted by the latter for approval of the Ruling Bishop. The said persons may be restored in their rights by decision of the Church Parish Council provided they repent and prove by their ways of living and behavior their moral rectitude.

Part IV (Managing Organs and Officers)

10. The following shall be managing organs:

- a. The general meeting of the members of the parish, herein called Parish Meetings;
- b. The Church Parish Council.
- c. Auditing Committee

A. Parish Meetings

11. Parish Meetings shall be: 1) Annual and/or 2) Extraordinary

1. Annual Parish Meetings

12. The time for the convening of the Annual Parish Meeting shall be fixed by the Church Parish Council within the last third of the civil calendar year. Not later than three weeks prior to the Annual Parish Meeting the Church Parish Council shall post notices on the convening thereof together with the agenda. In addition thereto, the pastor, prior to the Annual Parish Meeting, shall announce its convocation from the steps before the altar on three successive Sundays after the divine service.

13. The pastor, or in the case of his absence or illness, the person designated by the pastor, shall preside over the Annual Parish Meeting. When a matter is deliberated upon which pertains to the pastor personally it shall be obligatory that another person appointed by the Church Parish Council preside over the meeting.

14. The following shall be within the competency of the Annual Parish Meeting:

- (a) the election of the Warden, the Auditing Committee, and the members of the Church Parish Council;
- (b) the examination of the report of the Church Parish Council on the activities of the parish during the expired year;
- (c) the examination and ratification of the Warden's, Auditing Committee's, and Treasurer's reports;
- (d) the amendment of the By-Laws of the Parish.

Annotation. Canonical matters shall not be within the competency of either the Annual or Extraordinary Parish Meetings.

15. The Annual Parish Meeting shall be considered valid in the presence of a quorum of 2/3 the active and accepted parish members, current in their dues and assessments.

Annotation 1. If by the time fixed for the meeting the present parish members should fail to constitute the required quorum the meeting will be postponed and rescheduled weekly until such time as a quorum is present. The new meeting time will be posted immediately and shall be announced from the steps before the altar on Sunday after the divine service.

Annotation 2. The Parish Meeting checks the voting eligibility of its members. Every member of the Parish Meeting who has for some reason lost his right to participate in the meeting must of his own accord remove himself from participation in the meeting.

Annotation 3. Should the Annual Parish Meeting be called to order in the presence of the required quorum, but subsequently some members should quit the meeting and the number of those attending it should be less than said quorum, the meeting shall nevertheless be considered valid.

Annotation 4. Personal attendance of the parish members at the Parish Meeting for voting purposes shall be obligatory. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

16. All matters shall be decided by simple and open majority vote. However, should any one of those present demand secret balloting, his request shall be honored. In case of a tie the vote of the pastor or the person empowered by him to preside over the Annual Parish Meeting shall prevail.
17. The Secretary of the Church Parish Council shall keep the minutes of the Annual Parish Meeting and shall record all decisions adopted together with dissenting opinions, should any be expressed by the participants in the meeting.

2. Extraordinary Parish Meetings

18. Extraordinary Parish Meetings, if necessary, may be convened:
 - (a) by order of the Ruling Bishop;
 - (b) by the pastor of the parish;
 - (c) by the Church Council;
 - (d) pursuant to a written request of not less than one third of the parish members submitted to the Church Parish Council.
19. All provisions of the By-Laws pertaining to the convening of the Annual Parish Meetings (11-15) and the keeping of the minutes (16) shall be likewise applicable to the Extraordinary Parish Meetings.

Annotation: In emergency cases an Extraordinary Parish Meeting may be convened in an eight day term. Regarding such a meeting the pastor shall make an announcement from the steps before the altar after the Sunday divine service, and in addition, the Church Parish Council shall mail respective notices with a precise indication of the matter in connection with which the said meeting is being convened.
20. Only such matters shall be within the competency of an Extraordinary Parish Meeting as are specified in the notice convening same.
